Nazarene Missions International

Due to an abundance and surplus of CCKs and SPPs on the GA District, DFN will not pack additional ones this year. Instead, we will collect the $18 and $20 storage/transportation fee for sending surplus kits to Fawn Grove Compassionate Ministry Center. Any donation amount is accepted. Just mark it appropriately in the offering plate. Please make any donations by May 5th.

Sunday School

Start making plans - Everyone is invited to our Mother's Day breakfast on Sunday, May 12th. Our MEN will be doing all of the cooking and cleaning up! Breakfast will be served in the gym from 9:15 - 9:45. Grab your families and come eat with us!

Encourage others, live for God, RESTORE the world.

-Teen camp will be June 3rd-7th
-Graduation Sunday will be May 19th during the morning service. There will be an all church lunch following the service. Bring all your favorite dishes and gifts! there will be a table set up by each graduate with memories of their school days. mark your calendar! Graduates names will be in the bulletin.

Note of Thanks

Dear Church Family,
Thanks so much for being our family during the losses of Larry's mother and sister. The gift certificate and prayers were so appreciated. So grateful to be able to lean on friends during times like these.
Sincerely, Susan and Larry Little

TODAY'S LESSON

We live in a world that says, "Look out for #1!" Commercials encourage you to "treat yourself right" and "have it your way!" Everywhere you look online, people are obsessed with "selfies." Jesus encourages us to never put ourselves first. Instead, we are to put others first. In fact, we are to put ourselves LAST! After all, that is exactly what Jesus did.

"IF YOU WANT TO BE FIRST, PUT YOURSELF LAST!"

LUKE 14: 7-11

COLOSSIANS 1:23: "CONTINUE IN YOUR FAITH, ESTABLISHED AND FIRM."

GROW.
connect.
serve.
